

Bio

Omar A. Aziz is a Senior Analyst at the New Zealand Treasury currently on leave at Harvard University's John F. Kennedy School of Government where he is a candidate for the Master of Public Administration (MPA). At the Treasury he advised on research and policy issues across taxation, welfare/social security, income distribution, poverty and population ageing. Prior to that, he held a research role at the Ministry of Justice. He holds a B.A. (Honours) in Mathematics from the University of Auckland and a M.Sc. in Mathematics and Finance from Imperial College London.

Publications

Working Papers

Aziz, O., Gemmell, N., Laws, A., 2013, The Distribution of Income and the Incidence of Tax and Government Spending across the Lifecycle for Males and Females: Some Evidence from New Zealand, Working Papers in Public Finance, Victoria University of Wellington (http://www.victoria.ac.nz/sacl/about/cpf/publications/pdfs/WP10\_2013\_Distribution-Income-and-Fiscal-Incidence\_18062013.pdf)

Aziz, O., Carroll, N., Creedy, J., 2013, An Analysis of Benefit Flows in New Zealand Using a Social Accounting Framework, New Zealand Treasury Working Paper (<http://www.treasury.govt.nz/publications/research-policy/wp/2013/13-01/twp13-01.pdf>)

Aziz, O., Ball, C., Creedy, J., Eedrah, J., 2012, The Distributional Impact of Population Ageing, New Zealand Treasury Working Paper (<http://www.treasury.govt.nz/publications/research-policy/wp/2013/13-13/twp13-13.pdf>)

Research Reports and Articles

Aziz, O., Gibbons, M., Ball, C., and Gorman, E., 2012, The Effect on Household Income of Government Taxation and Expenditure in 1988, 1998, 2007 and 2010, Policy Quarterly, v. 8, n.1, p. 29 – 38 (<http://ips.ac.nz/publications/files/2d6039de603.pdf>)

Aziz, O., Forbes, B., Harding, M., Smith, D., 2010, A Guaranteed Minimum Income for New Zealand: A Preliminary Assessment of the Tax and Equity Implications, Background research report for the Welfare Working Group (<http://ips.ac.nz/WelfareWorkingGroup/Downloads/Working%20papers/Treasury-A-Guaranteed-Minimum-Income-for-New-Zealand%20.PDF>)