

Explaining International Differences in the Prices of Tradeables and Non-Tradeables (with a New Zealand Perspective)

Rodney E Falvey, Norman Gemmell,
Cherry Chang and Guanyu Zheng

WORKING PAPER 08/2014
May 2014

The Working Papers in Public Finance series is published by the Victoria Business School to disseminate initial research on public finance topics, from economists, accountants, finance, law and tax specialists, to a wider audience. Any opinions and views expressed in these papers are those of the author(s). They should not be attributed to Victoria University of Wellington or the sponsors of the Chair in Public Finance.

Further enquiries to:
The Administrator
Chair in Public Finance
Victoria University of Wellington
PO Box 600
Wellington 6041
New Zealand

Phone: +64-4-463-9656
Email: cpf-info@vuw.ac.nz

Papers in the series can be downloaded from the following website:
<http://www.victoria.ac.nz/cpf/working-papers>

Also New Zealand Productivity Commission Working Paper 2014/03

About the Authors

Rodney E. Falvey is Honorary Adjunct Senior Research Fellow in the Faculty of Business at Bond University, Gold Coast, Australia, having previously held academic positions at leading universities in the US, UK and Australia.
Email: rfalvey@bond.edu.au

Norman Gemmell is the Chair in Public Finance in the Business School at Victoria University of Wellington. His Chair is co-sponsored by three New Zealand government departments (The Treasury, Ministry of Social Development and Inland Revenue) and PwC. He previously held a number of academic positions in the UK and Australia, and senior policy advice positions in the UK and New Zealand public services.
Email: norman.gemmell@vuw.ac.nz

Cherry Chang was formerly the Administrator of the Chair in Public Finance. She provided valuable administration of the project of which this paper is one output, in addition to excellent research assistance on this paper.

Guanyu Zheng is an Advisor at the New Zealand Productivity Commission, having previously served as a Statistical Analyst at Statistics New Zealand.

